

Jesus is God's Satisfaction for Your Desire

Blaise Pascal, the great physicist and philosopher, said there is a God-shaped vacuum in the heart of every person that can only be filled by Him. There is in every human heart a hidden hunger for a right relationship with God, and that can only come through Jesus Christ. (Adrian Rogers)

Our solutions to life's problems have limitations. (John 6:1-69)

Many people followed Jesus to a "deserted place" (Matthew 14:15). It was late evening and the people were hungry. Sometimes God will bring you a problem to test your faith. The twelve disciples responded without faith.

- They wanted to "send the multitude away" (Luke 9:12).
 - Get rid of the problem.
 - Neglect the problem.
 - Ignore the problem.
- Philip calculated how much financial stimulus was needed.
 - He wanted to throw money at the problem.
 - He carefully measured the financial cost.
 - Philip, however, left Jesus out of the equation.

Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh.

Is there anything too hard for Me? (Jeremiah 32:27)

- Andrew presented an idea without believing in the solution.
 - He did not believe his idea would work.
 - He believed what he had was insufficient.

There is no problem too big for God to solve.

Know where to turn – Bring your problem to Jesus.

- Use all your strength – ask God for His help.
- Use all of His strength – let God do His part.

What did Jesus do? (Luke 9:16-17)

- Looked up to Heaven.
- Blessed the fish and the loaves.
- Broke them into smaller pieces.
- Gave them to the disciples.
- Instructed the disciples to distribute to the people.

There is no person too small for God to use.

Transfer what you have to Jesus – no matter how small your "lunch."

- Jesus will accept what you have – that's all He expects from you.
- Jesus will transform what you have.

There is no hunger too deep for God to satisfy.

Your spiritual hunger is satisfied by believing in Jesus. Jesus is your spiritual bread – He is sufficient for your deepest hunger.

Jesus is your supernatural bread – sent down from Heaven.

Jesus is your satisfying bread – you will never need any other.

To experience God's supply, you must seek Jesus.

Seek Jesus preeminently, above everything and everyone else: Take a hard, Holy Spirit-guided look at your life.

Seek Jesus purposefully: What is it you want and need Jesus to do for, in, and through you?

Seek Jesus continually: Have you lost your spiritual stamina? Are you no longer hungry for Jesus?

Accept His invitation to the banquet: Sit down at the table and nourish your soul with Jesus and never go hungry again.

Today I need to: _____

Jesus is God's _____ for Your Desire

Blaise Pascal, the great physicist and philosopher, said there is a God-shaped vacuum in the heart of every person that can only be filled by Him. There is in every human heart a hidden hunger for a right relationship with God, and that can only come through Jesus Christ. (Adrian Rogers)

Our solutions to life's problems have limitations. (John 6:1-69)

Many people followed Jesus to a “deserted place” (Matthew 14:15). It was late evening and the people were _____. Sometimes God will bring you a problem to _____ your faith. The twelve disciples responded without _____.

- They wanted to “send the multitude away” (Luke 9:12).
 - Get _____ of the problem.
 - _____ the problem.
 - _____ the problem.
- Philip calculated how much financial stimulus was needed.
 - He wanted to throw _____ at the problem.
 - He carefully _____ the financial cost.
 - Philip, however, left Jesus out of the _____.

Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh.

Is there anything too hard for Me? (Jeremiah 32:27)

- Andrew presented an idea without believing in the solution.
 - He did not believe his idea would _____.
 - He believed what he had was _____.

There is no problem too big for God to solve.

Know where to _____ – Bring your problem to Jesus.

- Use all _____ strength – ask God for His help.
- Use all of _____ strength – let God do His part.

What did Jesus do? (Luke 9:16-17)

_____ up to Heaven.
_____ the fish and the loaves.
_____ them into smaller pieces.
_____ them to the disciples.
_____ the disciples to distribute to the people.

There is no person too small for God to use.

_____ what you have to Jesus – no matter how small your “lunch.”

- Jesus will _____ what you have – that’s all He expects from you.
- Jesus will _____ what you have.

There is no hunger too deep for God to satisfy.

Your spiritual hunger is satisfied by _____ in Jesus. Jesus is your _____ bread – He is sufficient for your deepest hunger.

Jesus is your _____ bread – sent down from Heaven.

Jesus is your _____ bread – you will never need any other.

To experience God's supply, you must seek Jesus.

Seek Jesus _____, above everything and everyone else: Take a hard, Holy Spirit-guided look at your life.

Seek Jesus _____: What is it you want and need Jesus to do for, in, and through you?

Seek Jesus _____: Have you lost your spiritual stamina? Are you no longer hungry for Jesus?

_____ His invitation to the banquet: Sit down at the table and nourish your soul with Jesus and never go hungry again.

Today I need to: _____

